You should know

Through the course of the appeal process, the Commission will collect personal information about you (the claimant), including medical, financial and employment information and possibly photographs from the accident scene, etc. We collect this directly from you or your representative and SGI. This information is used for the purposes of conducting the appeal hearing and arriving at a decision.

Hearings are open to the public and a recording or transcript of the hearing, documents referenced during the proceedings and the written decision form part of the public record, and are accessible under The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

Written decisions are posted to www.autoinjuryappeal.sk.ca and www.canlii.ca, however your identity is masked.

More detailed information about our privacy policy can be found on the AIAC web site. Your signature below indicates your consent for the collection, use and disclosure of personal information as described.

If you need assistance completing this form, please call the AIAC at (306) 798-5545 or toll free at 1-866-798-5544 or visit our website at www.autoinjuryappeal.sk.ca.
